1. Call to Order

Bruce Ackley called the meeting to order and welcomed the members ahead of the coming hunting season.

The meeting noted that Opening Day of the Deer Damage Permit drive falls on Monday, September 1, 2025 (Labor Day).

---

2. Approval of the Agenda

The agenda was approved without changes.

---

3. Safety and Procedures

Bruce Ackley reviewed the current safety procedures for organized drives on the Ravenhill hunting grounds.

The following procedures remain unchanged:

- All participants must wear a GPS tracker while a drive is in progress.
- Radio silence applies during drives unless safety requires otherwise.
- The hunt master is responsible for stand assignments, assembly and debriefing.
- Any departure from an assigned stand must be reported to the hunt master.

Ted Oakes pointed out that some parts of the area still have a weak signal in denser stretches of forest. Bruce Ackley noted that the trackers will be checked before Opening Day.

4. Hunting Cabin and Practical Matters

The firewood supply has been restocked for the season. Roger Mills is responsible for buying coffee, batteries and basic supplies.

Charlotte Talcott proposed that the old map box in the hunting cabin be labeled more clearly. The matter was tabled until a later meeting.

5. Finances and Membership Dues

Roger Mills gave a brief report on the club's ongoing expenses.

Membership dues remain unchanged for the 2025 season. Any adjustments will be taken up after the season ends.

6. Hunting-Rights Agreements and Review

Graham Talcott informed the meeting that the Ravenhill estate will conduct a review this fall of older leases, routines and agreements relating to the hunting grounds.

The hunting-rights agreements are to be renegotiated after the season, before next year's hunting plan is finalized.

Bruce Ackley stated that the existing order has worked well for a long time and that any changes should be made with great caution.

Graham Talcott acknowledged the comment and stated that the matter will be addressed as a whole after the season ends.

7. Other Business

Elliot Kemble asked whether older maps are still kept in the hunting cabin. Bruce Ackley stated that the maps remain in the filing cabinet. Ted Oakes pointed out that some boundary markers in the eastern part of the area should be checked before later drives.

8. Next Meeting

The next meeting will be held after the close of Opening Week or when called by the hunt master.

---

9. Adjournment

Bruce Ackley adjourned the meeting.
